How do we do this?

A new curriculum

process-oriented culture and life-skills syllabus

PROCESS-ORIENTED CULTURE AND LIFE-SKILLS SYLLABUS

focus on the skills and processes which are involved in learning:

- collecting and organising information
- preparing and delivering a presentation
- drafting and revising written output
- thinking skills
- collaborative skills
- self-directed learning

develop the skills required to thrive in the modern world:

- knowledge of the English language
- knowledge of the culture(s) of the English language
- acquisition and mastery of life skills

WHICH 'LIFE SKILLS' WILL OUR STUDENTS ACQUIRE AND MASTER?

Social responsibility

PROJECTS

Kaplan International Languages Art Attack

SYLLABUS FOCUS: COM / LEA / SOC

Summary: Students consider what is meant by 'art', and learn about different genres of paintings and some of their most well-known exponents. They learn and practise using language for describing and reacting to works of art.

Project outcome: Students prepare and deliver presentations to each other about a description and interpretation of a painting.

ACCOMMODATION & WELFARE

Homestay accommodation

Supervision ratios

1 : 15

Curfews

13 YEARS OLD AND UNDER – 9.30pm if supervised
Students aged 13 or under must be supervised at all times by someone aged 18 or over.

14 - 17 YEARS OLD – 10.30pm
Students aged 14 or 15 must be in pairs or groups.

Under-18s are not permitted to go on overnight trips unless it is organised by Kaplan.

Travel to and from school

- Most hosts in both Torquay and Bath are within a 25-minute walk of the school.
- Comprehensive bus networks operate in both locations.
- Students travel to and from school in pairs or small groups.
- Remote supervision.
- We know where students are at all times. Any students who do not arrive at school or at their homestay by the expected time are chased up through coordinated communication between the school's emergency phone holder and the hosts.
- On Day One all students are taken to the school by their hosts.
- Activity staff include the bus station on the Day One walking tour and check all students know which bus to take and where they need to get off.
- After evening activities all under-14s are collected by their hosts or taken home by Kaplan staff in a taxi.
- Students aged 14+ make their own way home in pairs or small groups.

JUNIOR SUMMER PROGRAMS

USA and CAN

North American Junior programs at Toronto, Whittier, and San Diego

All 3 schools have previously hosted some type of junior program

All 3 schools are adapting our junior summer program to have the same activity structure as our Alpadia schools in Europe

The programs are for students between 12-17 years old, but possible exceptions may be allowed on an individual basis. Contact the school directors for questions.

TORONTO

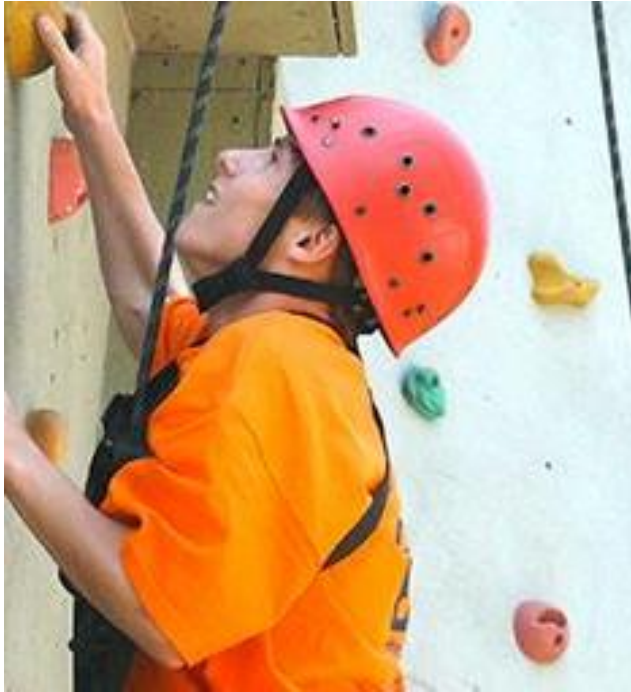

The school: located at Brock University in the Niagara Region on a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve with easy access to Toronto

Junior program experience: ran a similarly structured junior program at Brock University a few summers ago

Class structure: English classes held in Brock University classrooms

Modified K+ Curriculum with thematic focus on different topics that are age-appropriate

CAMP(US) LIFE

Students will be able to enjoy the full benefits of being on campus at Brock University:

Access to sports fields and courts, an obstacle course, and a climbing wall

Use of state of the art computer lab

On campus residence offering twin rooms with shared bathrooms

- Breakfast, lunch, and dinner + snacks provided at residential cafeteria
 - International options + options for dietary restrictions
- 24 hour campus security in addition to hired Kaplan night security in the residence halls

CAMP LIFE: ACTIVITIES AND EXCURSIONS

Students will lead by an on-site Camp Director and activity chaperones

- Kaplan Toronto Director will visit camp regularly during the summer

Afternoon activities include fun camp style options like arts and crafts, toasting marshmallows around the campfire, taking hikes, etc.

Included excursions will be to popular destination options like the city of Toronto tour and Niagara Falls Tour

For these particular excursions, students will travel by charter bus.

Excursions include tour highlights with the opportunity to add on extra stops at additional costs

Free time: Additional Sunday free time on campus or excursion

Older students may have exceptions with permission

WHITTIER

The school: located at Whittier College in east Los Angeles County with easy access to Orange County

Junior program experience: Consistently hosted junior summer program for groups

First time in several years that Whittier is accepting junior individuals

The class structure: generally separated into A2 – C1 levels; teaching methodology following the general principles of Kaplan Integrated Skills classes.

More age-appropriate content than some of the topics in our traditional K+ Notes

Each day's class is divided into two halves: the first focuses on language development with text-based materials, while the second half of class is project based so that the students are working on different production skills.

CAMP(US) LIFE: USA

- The junior program classrooms and dormitory are within a short walking distance to the main Kaplan school
- Students will have access to different campus areas, including sports fields, gym, library, basketball courts, and an Olympic size swimming pool.
- Camp style afternoon activities like crafts, sports, lawn games, scavenger hunts, etc.
- On campus residence offering twin rooms with shared bathrooms
 - 19 meals a week provided at residential cafeteria with options for those with dietary restrictions
 - 24 hour campus safety along with Whittier College resident advisors working to ensure safety
 - Kaplan Residential Chaperones who supervise students in the dorm and around campus

Limited availability for students under 16 years old.

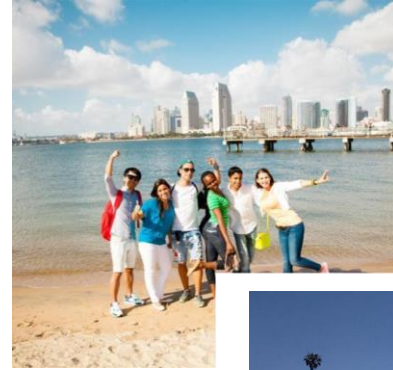

SAN DIEGO

- The school: located in the Gaslamp District in the heart of San Diego near world-class beaches
- Junior program experience: has been running a junior individual program for several years
- Class structure: Previously closed class with mixed levels
 - Very high-level students have the option to move to an adult class

CAMP LIFE: ACTIVITIES & EXCURSIONS

- Due to the great location, many of the activities happen around the city of San Diego
 - Include exciting opportunities like rock-climbing, surf lessons, movies, neighborhood tour, bowling, etc.
- Some included excursions will be to San Diego Zoo, Seaworld, a waterpark, and Safari Park.
 - Most San Diego excursions will be done with public transportation
- San Diego students will have one special included excursion to Disneyland and one LA City Tour trip
- Premium activities available as well for an additional cost.

SLICE OF HOME

San Diego is the only NA school with a homestay program (average distance from HFs to school/commute style?)

- Placed in twin rooms unless otherwise requested. Included: bus pass, Kaplan activity chaperone hired specifically for the summer.
- Breakfast and dinner included; students must take care of their own lunches. Cafes around campus; make lunch at home.
- 45-60 minutes by public transportation; usually 1 transfer. Host families will guide students to stop prior to taking it.
